INTERNATIONAL LITURGICAL CONFERENCE

“Celebrating the Eucharist: Sacrifice and Communion”

7th - 9th July, 2011

at

The Clarion Hotel, Lapp's Quay, Cork City

The Conference will be opened by:
His Eminence Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke,
Prefect of the Signatura Apostolica

Raymond Leo Burke was born in Richland Center, Wisconsin. He attended the Holy Cross Seminary in La Crosse, Wisconsin (1962-1968) and The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. where he received the degrees Bachelor of Arts (1970) and Master of Arts (1971). He continued studies at the Pontifical Gregorian University Rome in theology (1971-1975) and canon law (1980-1984).

He was ordained to the priesthood by Pope Paul VI on June 29, 1975, at Saint Peter's Basilica.

After his ordination to the priesthood, he served at the Cathedral of St. Joseph the Workman in La Crosse, Wisconsin and taught religion at Aquinas High School in La Crosse.

In 1989, Pope John Paul II nominated him Defender of the Bond of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura.

Nominated Bishop of La Crosse on 10 December 1994, he was consecrated by the Pope on 6 January 1995 at St. Peter's Basilica. During his time in La Crosse, he founded the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe which was dedicated on 31 July 2008.

He was promoted to the Archdiocese of St. Louis 2 December 2004 and nominated a member of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura in 2006. On 27 June 2007, he was one of several Prelates who reviewed with Pope Benedict XVI the proposed text of the impending motu proprio Summorum Pontificum liberalising the use of the Tridentine Rite. On 6 May 2008, Pope Benedict XVI named Archbishop Burke a member of the Pontifical Council for Legislative Texts, which authentically interprets canon law, and also a member of the Congregation for the Clergy. On 27 June 2008, Pope Benedict XVI appointed him Prefect of the Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura. In October 2009 he was appointed a member of the Congregation for Bishops.

Cardinal Burke established the Institute of Sacred Music in Saint Louis during his years as Archbishop of Saint Louis.

Cardinal Burke was created a Cardinal of the Holy Roman Church by Pope Benedict XVI in the Consistory of 20 November 2010 and assigned the diaconia of Sant'Agata dei Goti.

Cardinal Burke is about to publish a book on the Holy Eucharist entitled: Divine Love Made Flesh: The Holy Eucharist as the Sacrament of Charity
