

Fota VII International Liturgy Conference

Cork, Ireland, 5-7 July 2014

Agens in Persona Christi: Aspects of the Ministerial Priesthood

Provisional List of Speakers

Press release no. 3: 11 April 2014

No imbargo

Immediate Release

1. Dr. Andrea Bellandi, Florence (Italy)

The Christological Context for the Priest of the Third Millennium: Its Meaning and Significance

2. Prof. Dr. Dieter Böhler SJ, St. Georgen, Frankfurt (Germany)

Levi's Temple Service and the Messiah according to Luke

3. Bishop Philip Boyce, OCD, Bishop of Raphoe (Ireland)

The Priest as Intercessor with Special Reference to the Writings of Blessed John Henry Newman

4. Sven Conrad, SSP, Augsburg (Germany)

The Meaning of the Celebrating Priest for the actus sacrificalis missae – outlines of an open question

5. Dr. João Paulo de Mendonca Dantas, Fortaleza (Brazil)

In Persona Christi Capitis: the ministerial priesthood in its representation of Christ the Head of the Church

6. Prof. Dr. Manfred Hauke, Lugano (Switzerland)

The Deacon and ministerial action in the person of Christ. Fruits of the recent discussion on the specific profile of the sacramental diaconate

7. Dom Paul Gunter OSB, Sant'Anselmo (Rome)

Locus iste sanctus est, in quo orat sacerdos: The Priest agens in persona Christi

8. Dr. Stefan Heid, Pontifical Institute of Christian Archaeology (Rome)

The Altar as Center of Prayer and Priesthood in the Early Church

9. Fr. Thomas McGovern, Dublin (Ireland)

Priestly Identity: In persona Christi agens

10. Dr. Christian Schaller, Regensburg (Germany)

Joseph Ratzinger and the Ordained Ministry. Some Theological Emphases in his Episcopal Magisterium

Further details may be obtained from the Secretary of St. Colman's Society for Catholic Liturgy at colman.liturgy@yahoo.co.uk